

House Resolution No. 4647

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives occasionally pause in their diverse daily activities in order to recognize those Show-Me State residents who proved down through the years to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods through the excellence of their civic-minded endeavors; and

Whereas, the late Charles Moreland of Cass County, Missouri, attained considerable distinction in life as a farmer who in 1943, at the age of ten, was a founding member of the Wal-Center 4-H Club; and

Whereas, on August 12, 2007, at the Missouri State Fair, Charles Moreland was posthumously inducted into the Missouri 4-H Hall of Fame as the first Cass County nominee for the new organization; and

Whereas, the late Charles Moreland was one of thirty-four outstanding individuals who were honored by induction into the recently established Missouri 4-H Hall of Fame; and

Whereas, an active member of the Wal-Center 4-H Club for ten years, Charles Moreland served the club as president for three years, secretary for two years, and reporter for one year; and

Whereas, Charles Moreland participated in field crop, metal roofing, tractor maintenance, gardening, dairy, and baby beef projects and attended 4-H Camp at Bob White in Knob Noster; and

Whereas, in addition to serving on the County 4-H Council for two years, Charles Moreland met his future wife, the former Marilyn Anderson, during a 4-H square dance meeting; and

Whereas, Charles Moreland purchased his first registered Holstein in 1949, and by the time he graduated from 4-H in 1952 he had five registered cows, one heifer, two calves, and two bulls and had sold $1,500 worth of milk; and

Whereas, after serving in the United States Army from 1953 to 1955, Charles Moreland became a partner in his father's dairy operation and began his thirty-three-year-long career as a 4-H leader whose tractor maintenance group sponsored the first tractor pull in Cass County:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Charles Moreland for posthumous induction into the Missouri 4-H Hall of Fame on August 12, 2007, at the Missouri State Fair; and
